

The requirements to the article for the publication in the 2021 proceedings (indexed in the RSCI)

1) The article meets the requirements of the article in the RSCI:

Text of the article: the article should not exceed the volume of 10 pages as a whole, interval 1. File format Microsoft Word 2007. Use only standard font Times New Roman, size14, margins 2,5, spacing 1,25, text-align: justify

The abstract contains:

- UDC (UDC number in the upper left corner, semi bold, italic, 12)
  - Authorship (in the upper right corner of N. P. Surname, academic degree, academic title, place of work (study), city, country, font size 12, italics).
  - The title of the article in Russian in lowercase letters in the center, bold 12.
  - Abstract and keywords in Russian; font size 12, italics, the words "Abstract", "Keywords" in bold.
  - Authorship in English. *
  - The title of the article in English. *
  - Abstract and keywords of the article in English. *
  - References in the text in square brackets (example, [5: 25]).
  - References are placed at the end of the text of the article in alphabetical order, in italics, font size 12 and separated by a blank line from the main text of the article. Footnotes to references are not allowed. References are numbered manually (not automatically).
- 1) The article does not contain a large percentage of unacceptable level of borrowing. Similarity index maximum 20%. The authors of the article are the guarantors of the quality of the materials provided.

An article must be uploaded to your user account. You will receive an email notification about the admission/decline of your paper after the article was reviewed.

* The requirements for the material in English in the RSCI article are the same as for the material in Russian